

The Paint Creek Folklore Society
presents the 40th Annual Tin Whistle Concert

with headliners:

Cindy
Kallet
& Grey
Larsen

Grady Poe says when these two masterful musicians come together the whole is greater than the sum of the parts. Their obvious warmth and respect for one another touches everyone. Their music, old and new, is full of nuance and grace. It deeply touches an audience, evoking great beaming smiles and buckets of enthusiastic applause.

La Compagnie

To say this group is lively and energetic would be a huge understatement. Genot Picor, Michael Francis, Jean Marie Learman, Kathy Morris, and Mark Szabo combine the finest of Quebecois, Celtic, Maritime, and Appalachian music. Some bands make your toes tap; this one make you and your kids jump out of your seats and go clogging down the aisles.

Paint Creek Sampler:

Dave Falk is an old soul. He plays with an easy presence and seemingly effortless skill. He has the gift of interpreting covers and making them his own, and but he really shines in his infectious and touching original songs.

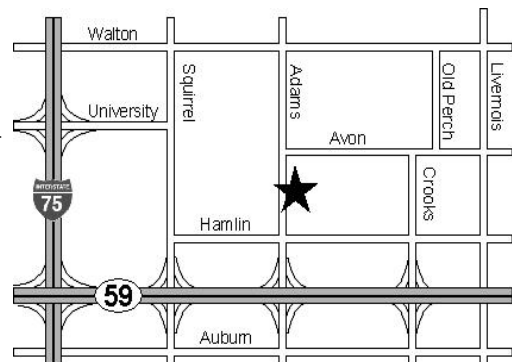

Evie Boss is a whirlwind of imagination and creativity. Her songs are brilliant, hilarious, insightful, and always surprising. She accompanies herself on guitar and ukulele. She's also a master gardener, cancer survivor, biology teacher, and has a rescued three-legged cat named Purrfect.
